Stewardship Moment

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 6, 2022

In the first reading from the prophet Isaiah we get a glimpse of a model for Christian stewards to follow. Within the temple, God’s voice shakes the foundations and causes the natural world to shake and tremble. The Lord asks: “Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?” Isaiah replies to the call of God for service with immediacy and enthusiasm: “Here I am, send me!” There is no hesitation. There are no excuses, contingencies, or “what-ifs.” Good stewards know that responding to the Lord’s call to serve is never easy, never simple to grasp, never designed for ready comfort and success. But the call needs a response. What about us? What does it take to shake us into an enthusiastic response? To say to God: “Here I am, Lord. Send me!”

The Bishop’s February prayer: For those who are ill, depressed, or forgotten in society, may the charity of the local parish community manifest the healing presence of God and counter the culture of indifference.

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Wednesday, Feb. 2, and in parishes over the weekend of Feb. 5-6. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God’s gift of their vocation. We are so blessed to have Fr. Mike and may we continue to pray for him.

Helping Hands are collecting empty pill bottles to give to Matthew 26 Ministries. There is a box in the entry for you to drop off. They MUST be washed inside and out, no glue residue or labels present. Only small and medium size bottles accepted!

A BIG Thank You to John, Carolyn & Jake Romine for putting up and taking down the manger scene that was in front of the church. As I glanced out from the office window—I saw A LOT of boxes in which the statues are kept along with the manger itself. I saw it was much work. So please tell them how much you appreciated the manger this past Advent season.

"The secret of happiness is to live moment by moment and to thank God for what He is sending us every day in His goodness."
— St. Gianna Molla
