Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of September 17/18 2022

In Jesus' parable of the Unjust Steward, we encounter a financial manager who has wasted his master's wealth and faces dismissal from his position. To overcome the crisis confronting him, the steward reduces some very considerable debts owed by poor neighbors to his master in order to help them out. Though the steward has sinned against God and his master by squandering what belongs to someone else, both the prudent way in which he goes about resolving the crisis coupled with relieving people who are in need can be seen as a way to better steward the gifts entrusted to us by God. Although good stewards today acknowledge that they may never use their God-given gifts in a way that completely conforms to the demands of the Gospel, a commitment to using their gifts with prudence and for the purpose of helping their neighbors wins God's favor.

The Bishop's September prayer: For all who serve in our community as first responders: that God may protect them from all harm, and that we be grateful for the sacrifices they make for the common good.

Thank you to all who donated to the Festival of Sharing! St. Anne's goal was to provide 25 personal hygiene bags this year. Our parish is so generous, we were able to provide 45 bags! Again, thank you for being so generous!

We averaged 244 parishioners at Mass each weekend in August. We must send in Mass attendance for EACH Mass for this entire calendar year (Aug-July). Thank you to our greeters for helping us with this big job! Let's continue to show up at Mass, not only for ourselves, but to show the Diocese what a strong and active Parish we are!

Helping Hands will meet at 9:00 on September 23 to decorate tables and set up their booth for the Parish Dinner. Join us.

Please pray for the comfort and consolation of the family of Peggy McAllister, former parishioner, and for the repose of her soul due to her recent passing. Peggy died July 1 and was buried September 11.

Let us pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life:

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy.

Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women.

Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church.

May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more...

and serving You, be truly happy. Amen
