*Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Weekend of August 27/28, 2022*

Crucifixion was an excruciatingly painful and shameful form of execution, reserved for Rome's vilest criminals and insurrectionists, cruelly calculated to deter imitators. Jesus' statement, "Whoever does not carry their own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple," would have shocked and rocked his listeners. But that was his intent.

Jesus is teaching crowds. He uses strong and shocking language to shake people out of the false security of popular messianic expectations. The conditions Jesus lays down for discipleship are unambiguous. We must love him more than our loved ones or ourselves. This is a way of stating the two great commandments—to love God with all our hearts, all our beings, all our strength, and all our minds, and love our neighbors as ourselves.

Discipleship is more than a private matter. Faith in him is more than a family tradition or personal belief. Following Jesus takes us into the world, away from home, even away from ourselves, into relationships with people not like us. Disciples who try to live as Jesus did can expect to endure shaming, harassment, and even violence. Jesus' words should disturb and challenge us. Being gospel words, they also carry the power to help us live as disciples.

In what ways do you carry Jesus' cross?

The Bishop's September prayer: For all who serve in our community as first responders: that God may protect them from all harm, and that we be grateful for the sacrifices they make for the common good.

Please pray for the comfort and consolation of the family of Harold Beasley, Breanne Beasley's father, and for the repose of his soul due to her recent passing.

Please pray for the comfort and consolation of the family of Harold McVay, father to Don McVay, and for the repose of his soul due to his recent passing.

Please pray for the comfort and consolation of the family and friends of Nick Belshe and for the repose of his soul due to his recent passing.

In every age O Lord, You are our refuge.

Classes for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) have undergone a name change and are now the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA).

OCIA classes are for adults wishing to join the Catholic church or for adults who just want to learn more. We welcome adults from our own parish, adults who are interested in learning about the Catholic faith, and adults wanting to join the Catholic Church next Easter.

We want to encourage members of our own parish to reach out to those in our community. The best way to encourage others to join is by not only extending an invitation, but by attending classes with them! Please come to class with those you invite. Let's lead by example this year so we can grow the Church and gain a deeper understanding of our Catholic faith as a parish.

Plans are underway to resume St. Anne's annual fundraiser for Basket Bingo November 5th. We would like to invite any parishioners who would be interested in donating a basket of at least a $100 value or a consolation prize. If you are interested, please contact Linda Kempker at 573-514-9276 or Karen Hagedorn at 573-682-4046. St. Anne's thanks you for your continued support.

We are hosting our Mom's Tuesday morning Rosary. Please plan to come to the Church at 8:15/8:20ish AM (after school drop off). Anyone can come, not just moms:) - non-school age kids are welcome!!!! We don't mind the noise!

YOU'RE INVITED to SAVE THE MUSIC! Please plan on joining us at 2 p.m, Sunday Sept. 25 for Somewhere in Time, the fifth annual Basi family concert at Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Columbia (903 Bernadette Dr., Columbia, Mo. 65203). It's 2022 and all the music has mysteriously disappeared. Come watch Doc Brown and Marty McFly team up with Bill & Ted as they race to repair the space-time continuum and bring back the music! A free-will offering will be collected to support Down syndrome services in mid-Missouri.

Pray the Rosary: Mondays @ 6:30 pm Communion Service/Mass followed by the Rosary.

Let us pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life:

O Father, you desire all of us to be happy.

Stir up the grace of a religious vocation in the hearts of many men and women.

Grant to them the willingness and generosity to give of themselves, their lives, their time and their talents to the service of Jesus Christ, Your Son, Our Lord and Savior, and to His Holy Church.

May more men and women go forth as priests, deacons, brothers and sisters to bring the truths of our Catholic faith to all others so that soon they, too, may know You better and love You more... and serving You, be truly happy. Amen

September's Devotion is Our Lady of Sorrows. Since the 16th century Catholic piety has assigned entire months to special devotions. Due to her feast day on September 15, the month of September has traditionally been set aside to honor Our Lady of Sorrows. All the sorrows of Mary (the prophecy of Simeon, the three days' loss, etc.) are merged in the supreme suffering at the Passion. In the Passion, Mary suffered a martyrdom of the heart because of Our Lord's torments and the greatness of her love for Him. "She it was," says Pope Pius XII, "who immune from all sin, personal or inherited, and ever more closely united with her Son, offered Him on Golgotha to the Eternal Father together with the holocaust of her maternal rights and motherly love. As a new Eve, she made this offering for all the children of Adam contaminated through his unhappy fall. Thus she, who was the mother of our Head according to the flesh, became by a new title of sorrow and glory the spiritual mother of all His members." For more information visit this website:
